

Simcoe
Curling Club

172 South Drive, Bldg 5
P.O. Box 154
Simcoe, ON
N3Y 4L1

SCC Member Code of Conduct

Member Expectations

- Be Respectful Treat everyone with kindness, fairness, and integrity.
- Play Fair Respect the rules, officials, volunteers, and fellow curlers.
- Stay Safe No bullying, harassment, or dangerous behaviour—on or off the ice.
- Use Social Media Responsibly Avoid posts that harm others or damage the club's reputation.
- Know Your Role Coaches, athletes, parents, and board members all have specific responsibilities.

What Happens When Things Go Wrong

- If a member breaks the Code of Conduct, here's what happens:

You Can Report It in Writing to any board member within 14 days of the incident.

How It's Handled

- Complaints are managed through two different processes depending on severity. It could be sent to a Disciplinary Committee or a Case Manager independent of the club.

Type of Issues (not inclusive)

- Rude comment, broken rule, harassment, repeated offences, violence, retaliation

Your Privacy Matters

- Complaints and investigations are kept confidential and handled respectfully.
- Sanctions could include a warning, suspension, or removal from club activities.
- Decisions will be shared in writing.
- You may appeal the decision within 14 days of being issued.

As a member of Curling Ontario and Curling Canada, the Club is bound by their respective Codes of Conduct and Ethics.